Only proceedings in which the record is taken by an Electronic Court Recording Operator (ECRO) before a U.S. District Judge or recorded by a Courtroom Administrator for a proceeding before a U.S. Magistrate Judge have audio CDs available for purchase. Proceedings taken by Official Court Reporters do not have audio recordings available for sale.

An Audio Recording Order form is available on the court’s website. The completed form should be e-mailed to Transcripts_Nevada@nvd.uscourts.gov.

4. Can I order a transcript by phone?

No, the Transcript Order form must be completed and returned to the Clerk’s Office by e-mail or delivered.

5. How much does a transcript cost and how long does it take?

The cost of a transcript depends on how quickly you need it and if it has been previously produced or not.

The following page rates have been set by the Judicial Conference of the United States:

	ORIGINAL	1st Copy to Each Party	Each Additional Copy to the Same Party
Ordinary Transcript (30-day) A transcript to be delivered within 30 calendar days after receipt of an order.	$3.65	$.90	$.60
14-Day Transcript A transcript to be delivered within 14 calendar days after receipt of an order.	$4.25	$.90	$.60
Expedited Transcript (7-day) A transcript to be delivered within seven calendar days after receipt of an order.	$4.85	$.90	$.60

Daily Transcript A transcript to be delivered on the calendar day following receipt of an order (regardless of whether that calendar day is a weekend or holiday), prior to the normal opening hour of the clerk’s office.	$6.05	$1.20	$.90

Hourly Transcript A transcript of proceedings to be delivered within two hours from receipt of an order.	$7.25	$1.20	$.90
Realtime Transcript A draft unedited transcript produced by a certified realtime reporter as a byproduct of realtime to be delivered electronically during proceedings or immediately following receipt of an order.	One feed¹, $3.05 per page; two-to-four feeds, $2.10 per page; five or more feeds, $1.50 per page.

6. How do I know how much to send as a deposit?

Once your order is received, an estimate of the total cost will be prepared, and you will be notified by the court reporter, recorder, or transcription company as to how much deposit is needed to start preparing your transcript. A deposit of the estimated total is required. You will be asked to send the deposit payable directly to the court reporter or transcription company. Transcripts are not started and the time for delivery does not start to run until the deposit has been received.

7. How will I know when my transcript is completed?

When a transcript is complete, the court reporter or transcriber will deliver the transcript as requested in the delivery instructions on the transcript order form, along with a bill for the actual cost. Your deposit will have been deducted from the actual cost. You will be asked to pay the balance payable to the court reporter or transcription company. The court cannot accept cash as payment for a transcript. If your deposit was greater than the actual cost, you will receive a refund check.

8. When I file the “Designation of Transcripts” form for my appeal, does this automatically order the transcripts I have listed?

No, you must also complete and submit a Transcript Order form or, if appropriate, a CJA-24 request. The Designation of Transcripts is a document filed in the appeal process, but it does not replace ordering the transcripts with the Transcript Order form.

9. Does the court pay for my transcripts when ordered for an appeal?

No. Unless otherwise ordered, it is the responsibility of the ordering party to pay for the transcripts to be used in the record on appeal.

¹ A realtime “feed” is the electronic data flow from the court reporter to the computer of each person or party ordering and receiving the realtime transcription in the courtroom.
